SICSS ETH Zurich, 14 June 2021

SICSS: what have you signed up for?

- ▶ Goals of SICSS
 - ▶ Provide free training to young researchers at the intersection of social science and data science
 - ▶ Incubate new research projects across disciplinary boundaries
- ▶ History
 - ▶ Since 2017 (started out as a 30-people-conference in Princeton)
 - ▶ 23 locations with 649 participants from 363 universities and from 124 academic fields

Some concerns you might have...

- ▶ Should I rather/in addition take a computer science class?
- ▶ Why should I talk to scientists from other sub-fields?
- ▶ With the online format, why attend this venue?
